Road signs in Sheffield unreliable: using a SatNav is highly recommended. From the M1, the City Centre is best/quickest entered from Junction 33 via the Sheffield Parkway. Sheffield has two universities: do NOT follow signs for Sheffield HALLAM University!

By Bus or Train:

Follow the walking route (in Green on the map). There are shortcuts from the Bus Station up to Arundel Gate, but these involve stairs. Distance from Station to Channing Hall approx. 600 metres. Note that Howard Street is an uphill walk. Distance from Channing Hall to the Diamond Building approx 1,000 metres, slightly uphill.

Sheffield SuperTram:

The SuperTram (route in Blue on map) can be used to get from the Train Station up to Channing Hall (N.B. the SuperTram stop is at the BACK of the station). Catch a Blue Route tram displaying 'Malin Bridge' as its destination: get off at the Cathedral stop (3rd stop) and walk up Fargate (pedestrianised) to Channing Hall.

If required, from Channing Hall use any tram stop on the Blue Route ('Malin Bridge') to get to the University stop.

Anyone returning to the Station from the Diamond Building can catch the Blue Route tram (displaying 'Halfway' as its destination), from University to Sheffield Station.
